A Flower Producing Flowers . . .

... Winston-Salem
State University

In her endeavors to promote a level of communication harmoniously conducive to her academic pledge, Winston-Salem State University reaches out to and takes in from her namesake community in efforts to continue the cultivation of seeds planted 88 years ago.

*Fertilized by the soil
of Winston-Salem,
Winston-Salem State University
breeds an awareness of the stable interaction which must be maintained between school and community.
This interaction has produced
magnificent Lyceum events,
Summer Youth Programs,
Elderhostel Programs,
participation in the Carolina
Streetscene, W S S U Day
sponsored by community churches and consistent contributions to the community
by Student Organizations.*

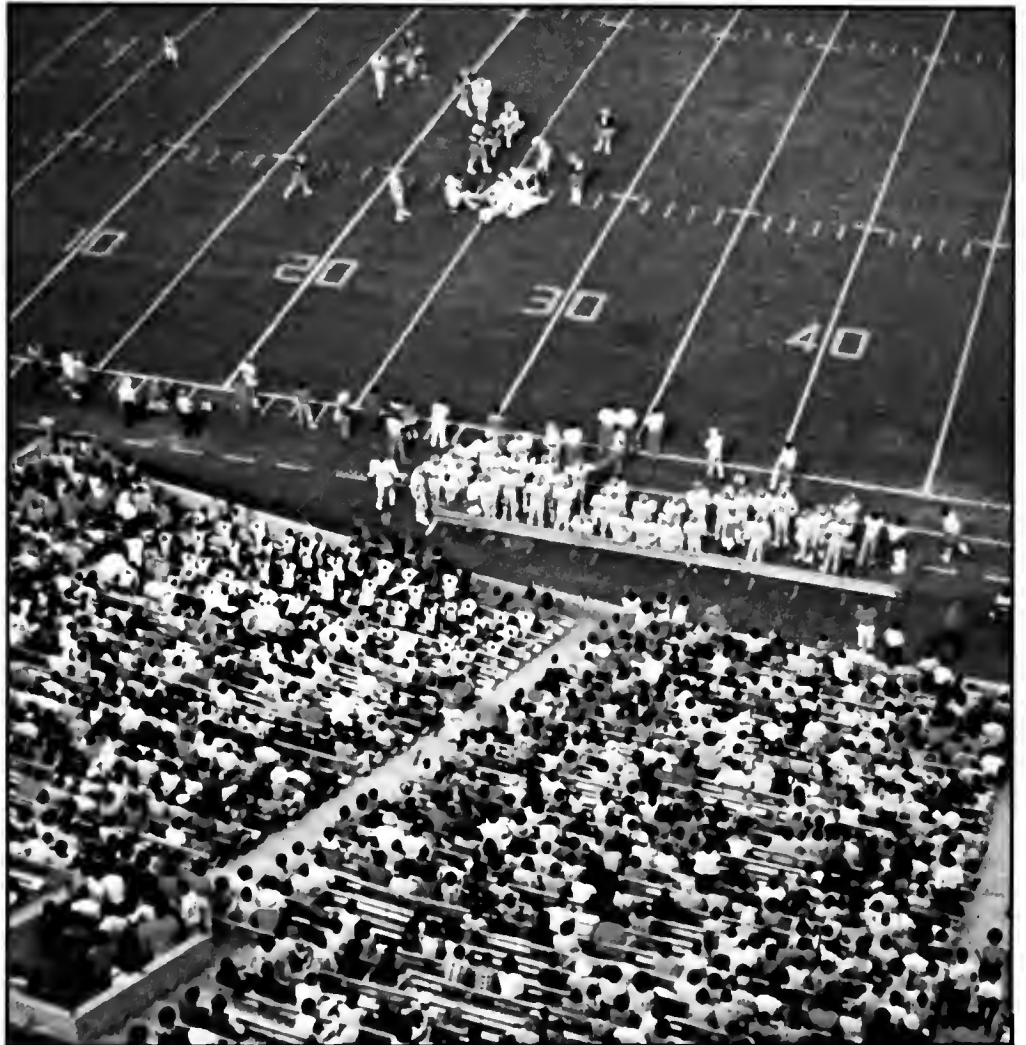

*Deeply rooted
in Winston-Salem's Soil,
Winston-Salem State University
is wholeheartedly supported by her followers. The pride of the Hometown school is evident as displayed in the season opener between rival school and city —
North Carolina A & T
State University of Greensboro.
The WSSU Ram side filled*

*to almost maximum capacity as the city of Winston-Salem played football;
expressed admiration
at Founder's Day festivities, and as always enjoyed the treasured week of Homecoming
when Winston-Salem State University and Winston-Salem celebrate a purpose in mutual understanding.*

*As long as the soil is cultivated and the plant nurtured, a plant will survive.
Winston-Salem State University implanted in the soil of Winston-Salem keeps alive
the hopes, dreams and aspirations of the future.
A foundation of academic

Office of the Chancellor

Dear Graduating Seniors:

The culmination of your schooling at WSSU is, no doubt, like most momentous occasions in life — a time of mixed emotions. Graduation brings with it a sense of pride in personal achievement as well as feelings of nostalgia for four of the most important years in your life.

The social and intellectual growth you have experienced here has prepared you for the difficult challenges and exciting opportunities of a new decade. As you join with our thousands of graduates as a dedicated, loyal WSSU alumnus, I invite you to return to the campus often and participate fully in the further enhancement of your Alma Mater.

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to you. Moreover, your University Family joins me in expressing my very best wishes for continued success in your every personal and professional endeavor.

Warm regards,

Douglas Covington
Chancellor

1979-1980

Miss Winston-Salem
State University
Tonio Darlene Sowell

Mr. Pam
Curtis Kinnard Hairston

Greetings,

I would like to congratulate the Class of 1980 for successfully completing their course of study at Winston-Salem State University. With your graduation, we lose part of our family, and the world gains proud, skilled professionals. I wish you well and ask that you keep in touch with that which has brought you this far — Winston-Salem State University.

To those who remain, it is up to you to carry the academic, social, and cultural light of this university. You entered to learn and learn you must. And when you depart to serve, we would trust each and everyone of you with a part of the world's future. We all know that life is too short to be wasted, therefore we must "build upon the past to face the challenges of the future." The past is gone, we cannot undo it, but the future is ahead.

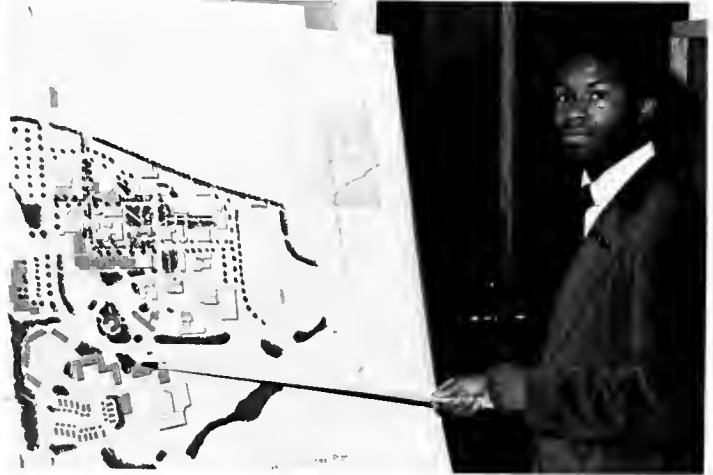

Opportunities await us all. But how will you meet them? Will you be ready? You can only answer those questions if you have a solid foundation of knowledge which you continue to build upon.

Remember this one thing, "Today is the tomorrow you worried about yesterday."

Dedication

The 1980 edition of the RAM cannot be dedicated to a more worthy recipient than the WSSU STUDENT BODY. It is the Student Body that makes WSSU a success and an integral part of the universal community. Without your collective and positive outlook, Winstan-Salem State University could not be the GREATEST!

Ten years ago we wondered where we would be today . . . five years ago we decided where we wanted to go and today . . . here we are. Who are we? We are the GRADUATING SENIORS OF 1980.

As members of the class of 1980 at Winston-Salem State University, we have experienced modification, renovation, conversion and transformation. We were the first and foremost to utilize the facilities in the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium as we were oriented here upon our initial arrival in August of 1976. Here we were taught the tune of and learned the words to our University's Alma Mater. Hence, we were officially adopted into the Ram Family.

In the beginning, the male freshmen were like ants at a picnic, scurrying from one end of the blanket to the other trying to see who could obtain the most. The young ladies were like giant footsteps trampling over young men's feelings whenever they were approached.

After recuperating from the shock of realizing that we were on our own, we elected as our freshmen class president, Miss Teresa Murrell. By providing the student body with a talent show entitled "MOVIN'", we had completed our first measure of acceptance into the university. Along with our musically inclined, we brought the physically inclined. Since our class has entered Winston-Salem State University our football team has done nothing less than surge to the top under the direction of Coach Bill Hayes who also entered in 1976.

During the fall of 1977, we greeted the newly appointed Chancellor for our university. Dr. H. Douglas Covington became the sixth chief administrator for WSSU. He continued the "family spirit" emphasized by Dr. Kenneth R. Williams and reemphasized our mission — academic excellence! Under his guidance, several new curriculums have been added.

It was this year that we officially had "hours." We took advantage of our scholastic achievements and set out to meet various challenges. Some of us joined Greek letter organizations to help us accept challenges better while others joined a variety of other campus organizations out of a desire to serve their fellow man. Our accomplishments were already felt within, but we were determined to reach higher expectations; so we struggled onward.

Providing entertainment for us during our sophomore year were the distinguished Gil-Scott Heron, the Amazing Kreskin, and the talented Mr. Ramsey Lewis.

During the spring semester of 1978, we were overcome with the loss of a great instructor. Dr. Joseph Patterson, a professor of philosophy, will forever be remembered for his great teachings to those persons whose lives he so sincerely touched. "Be A SCHOLAR!" he'd say with his deep gruff voice; and scholars we learned to be as we entered another year of challenge and change.

As juniors with a cocky spirit uniquely our own, we continued to keep pace with new ideas and a growing WSSU. Mindful of "Dr. Pat's" words, we vowed to keep abreast of the issues to provide the answers.

We joined Dr. Covington in celebration of his inauguration as the sixth Chancellor of Winston-Salem State University. One of Chancellor Covington's major events as Chief Executive was the dedication of the Hall-Patterson Communications Building. This facility, designed to make use of the media and other forms of educational technology, further reinforced our belief that opportunities for learning were limitless.

As part of a different type of experience, all the color, singing, and dancing of Broadway was created before us in the K.R. Williams Auditorium as part of our Lyceum Series. Passengers on a journey down memory lane were dazzled by "Bubbling Brown Sugar" and for those wanting to ease on down the road, "The Wiz" vicariously provided for that. The move to culturally educate as well as to academically educate us was underway.

The trend seemed to be focused on assimilating WSSU students into the worlds of business and high academia. More Winston-Salem State University graduates were placed in jobs and graduate schools than ever before. As juniors, we flocked to the Career Planning and Placement Center located on the third floor of Blair Hall. Making use of its facilities we began preparing for our "future careers".

Ready and anxious to assume leadership roles, we returned during the Fall of '79" as SENIORS! Three pieced suits, dresses, Pierre Cardins, and briefcases replaced the high water pants, sneakers, high school athletic jackets, and jeans of our freshman year. The men no longer had to prove that they were all "Macho Men". The women, realizing a spark of potential in their opposites melted their cold hearts and gave way to the "male approach".

Thus far our Senior year has been plagued with hard work, constant challenges, and diverse responsibilities. We willfully continue to accept and complete our hard work and we freely meet the challenges that so often face us in our campus lives. As always, we are determined that by accepting these responsibilities we are preparing ourselves for that final march down the aisle . . . a march that will say "You met the requirements; you may now receive your degree." We will then be winged to fly away and for some of us never to return. As we leave, we'll remember our experiences at Ram Land and we will treasure our memories always, But we must go on.

'So farewell 'ol SU —
Our lives have been brightened
By times spent with You!

Respectfully submitted

Who's Who Among Our Faculty And Staff

Mr. Burke

Mr. Burke's office is on the first floor, first door to the right as you enter the back of Blair Hall. He is a silent man, observant and mindful never to invade upon the privacy of those who seek his aid.

Respect, he believes, is something everyone should demand. To be able to show that respect is a key to maturity. Without maturity much of the importance of living would be misunderstood.

He thrives on the challenges presented to him by the youths he comes in contact with. He finds that he must keep abreast of a bit of everything because the youths are concerned with everything. To Mr. Burke youths are like doys, each and every one is different, and to him that makes them all the more enjoyable.

Mrs. Lillie Ellington

A mother encourages her children and helps them find their place. Moms has encouraged Earl Monroe and Eugene Smiley and Bill Murrell and Timmy Newsome. She still works the midnight shift mainly because mothers are especially needed when the house is full of children.

Moms believes everyone qualifies for something and through learning one can become aware of one's potentials. Education is the most reliable process by which one can discover his worth. This bit of knowledge should be heeded to because as all children know "Mothers know best."

Dr. Fred Tanner

Dr. Tanner is a conductor striving to make each concert a memorable occasion. His baton rarely falters as he encourages the communication needed between his instrumentalists and himself. His energetic movements excite his musicians into giving 100% of themselves in order to produce at least one moment of personal satisfaction from a job well done.

He is an idealist with the belief that anyone can accomplish whatever one sets out to do. But, one must believe in one's purpose and be willing to make the sacrifices necessary to achieve. To be able to accept sacrificing leads to maturity which in turn leads to a discovery of the 'self'. To Dr. Tanner this makes conducting all the more worthwhile.

To be respected is one of the keys to existence for the young individual. Honesty, sincerity and a sprinkling of love is the wellspring for relationships which make the Ram Family quite unique.

These pages are devoted to a few Rams worthy of respect because they have taken the time to give much more in return.

Mrs. Vivienne B. Conley

Even in winter, Mrs. Conley has the aura of Spring. Her smile is a ray from the sun, warming the hearts of many. She sparkles like a piece of fine glass, with a vitality all her own. She loves life and admires those who are not afraid to live life to its fullest. Her energies are abundant and her willingness to share is a gift which cannot be measured.

She's a sprightly person who believes in 'good old common sense'. She can conquer a classroom with one clap of the hands and a joke or two. She always stresses challenge, and anything worth challenging is worth conquering.

Mrs. Conley is loved and appreciated at WSSU because she loves and appreciates in return.

Dr. Fred Eady

Youth contains qualities of childhood and adulthood. Dr. Eady surrounds himself with youths because of the special qualities they harbor. A youth is not afraid to be his 'plain ole self'. This specialty Dr. Eady finds most attractive in the students drifting in and out his office daily and the individuals whose names he thunders from the opposite side of the street.

He enjoys drama and appreciates how much willingness the students show in working with drama; but especially he enjoys conversing outside the classroom. To Dr. Eady, a blossoming occurs, like lovely, hungry flowers soaking up their first rays of sun.

He finds importance in the fact that the students are here pursuing an education. In the eyes of Doc Eady that makes them all the more lovelier.

HOMECOMING 1979

LASTING IMPRESSIONS

The headache week of mid-terms became just a memory as Homecoming burst into full bloom on the campus of WSSU. In celebration of a tradition of unity, members of the 'SU' family then and now, came together in spirited harmony for a week of getting-off.

Sunday, 'OLE-SU's' family showed appreciation for the fun-filled days to follow by worshipping at Shiloh Baptist Church. Later that evening, we enjoyed the operatic melodies of Ms. Martha Flowers, whose breathtaking vocals lulled a captivated audience.

Manday was ushered in with "Find-A-Rama Day" transforming inquisitive Rams into sleuthing sherlocks. The evening brought a widening of our perspectives as television journalist and commentator Tony Brown enlightened us on our status as Blacks in America. After which we Rams sparted our best red and white and jammed at La Terre XXI.

Cultural education was the focal point on Tuesday as the members of the Fine Arts Departments sponsored our first annual "Soul Workshop." That evening the class of 1980 invited the underclassmen and other family members to be their guests for an evening of merriment.

"Let Yaur Feelings Show" provided Wednesday's theme as the Student Government Association gave the family members a chance to dedicate songs to all their special someones. Blushes and smiles on hes and shes let us know that Homecoming was more than just a gathering of the clan.

We let our feelings show even more that evening as the Master of Rhythm and Blues, Ray Charles and his harmonizing Raylettes soothed the savage beasts of a tightly packed K.R. Williams Auditorium.

The glamour and elegance of the Coronation Ceremony on Thursday evening was a magnificent finale to the earlier styling of Western Wild and "GQ" slick. Semi-formally attired, we jammed with Miss Winston-Salem State University and Miss Alumni at a Coronation Ball which will lang be remembered by many.

Homecoming weekend shot off with a bang as the annual Red and White Day Mini Parade participants danced their way to the gym to hold memorial services for the Golden Bull. The spirit of Homecoming was especially alive as a pepped up Red and White Army rallied together in Whitaker Gymnasium.

We partied hard all night Friday during the Pre-Down festivities as a band from out of this world kept our feet dancin' til midnight. A disco expert kept us 'knee deep' in jams until the early morning hours.

Saturday morning, with no sleep, we hooped and halled at our favorites in the Homecoming Parade. The streets of Winston-Salem became royal carpets for pretty ladies atop pretty rides as this spectacle of grandeur made us proud to be a part of the 'SU' family. After the parade, everyone who was anyone headed for "THE GAME", dressed in their best, their main intent to impress.

Still mindful of the Homecoming tradition, we gathered at our home base. Students and Alumni, Rams and Bulls strolled the campus streets, keyed up and ready to make joyful naises at a jammer's show. Mass production popped us with firecrackers, Kaal and the Gang honored all the ladies and Maze inspired us to keep well the memories of the Lasting Impressions of Homecoming '79'.

WSSU vs. A&T
Groves Stadium
North Carolina A&T-14 WSSU-7

The Rams tipped off their season on Sept. 7 by hosting arch rival, North Carolina A&T. Neither team showed any inclination to dominate in the first half, however, WSSU's countless mistakes allowed A&T to be first on the boards.

WSSU's finesse in the second half wasn't much better than that of the first. Frequent fumbles and penalties damaged both team's effectiveness. The Aggies managed to penetrate the Ram's defense again in the third quarter, boosting the score to 14-0. Frustrations were alleviated, somewhat, from the Ram's bench when Kermit Blount completed a touch pass to Arrington Jones in the fourth quarter.

WSSU's perplexities intensified in the final moments of the game, however. The opposition now included time as well as the Aggies, and the two became the victors as the clock ran out.

WSSU vs. HAMPTON INSTITUTE
WSSU-41 HAMPTON-14

WSSU, aware of Hampton's potential to run and pass the ball, made those traits ineffectual as the Rams raged on to defeat the Pirates 41-14.

Leading the Rams in their awesome attack was fullback Timmy Newsome. Newsome had an explosive fifty-one yard touchdown run and accumulated an overall game total of 170 yards rushing.

WSSU manipulated offensively and defensively, conspicuously displaying their agility and quickness throughout the game.

As usual the Rams surged in the fourth quarter, but the difference was not noticeable because against the Pirates their excellence had been consistent.

RAMS-21 NCCU-6

The Rams won their second game in a row by defeating N.C. Central University, 21-6. The Ram's last the services of quarterback and team leader Kermit Blount early in the second quarter and found it difficult to generate much offense afterwards. However, the 21 points scored earlier were more than enough as the defense withstood the huddleless Central offense.

WINSTON-SALEM STATE UNIVERSITY VS. VIRGINIA UNION

Continuous rain and gray skies befitted the emotions of the Ram bench as WSSU fell to Virginia Union 13-0. With Kermit Blount benched with an ankle injury, there was a snag in the offensive game. Coach Bill Hayes juggled his team around, searching for the right combination, but it was never found. When the contest was over, the Ram's were still looking for a score.

The most exciting game of the year could have changed the destiny of the young Ram gridiron squad. Norfolk State came to play the Rams boasting an undefeated record. However, the Rams played inspired first half football and threatened to blow Norfolk out of the stadium. Down 21-0 Norfolk came to life and the Rams managed to salvage a tie.

WSSU
vs.
LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE
47-7

It was definitely "bad news for the bears" October 6, as the Rams massacred Livingstone College, 47-7. WSSU had no difficulty in manipulating the Blue Bears offensively or defensively.

The presumptuous Rams defaced the Bears running game, and glided through their defense with ease. WSSU took advantage of Livingstone's lassitude in the second half, adding twenty-one decisive points to those twenty-six points scored in the first half.

vs.
FAYETTEVILLE STATE
28-14

The Rams seemed a bit sluggish and had to come from behind to defeat Fayetteville State 28-14. Throughout the first half WSSU was half-dazed, but came to life in the second.

The Rams were ignited in the second half by Arrington Jones as the Rams vendetta against the Broncos came full force.

Central State vs. WSSU
Rams-27 Central State-6

The Rams playing in their fourth homecoming game of the year spoiled another by defeating the highly ranked Central State Marauders 27-6 in Wilberforce, Ohio. The Rams used a very consistent offensive attack aided by a stiff defense. This win moved the Rams to 5-2-1 for the year.

vs.
J.C. Smith
57-18

The last home game of the season between the Rams and J.C. Smith, was a spectacular event. Both teams were up for the occasion and throughout the first half the score changed hands several times. It wasn't until late in the third quarter that the Rams exploded and put the contest out of reach, downing Smith 57-18.

This was indeed a sentimental climax for senior football and senior band members, and their performances were nothing less than superb.

WSSU-28 ECSU-18

Lack of officials caused a 45-minute delay in starting the game but the Rams quickly disposed of the Elizabeth City Vikings 28-18.

Timmy Newsome led the Rams attack with 141 yards, leaving him 13 yards short of 1000 yards for the season.

WSSU vs. Kentucky State
14-6

The final regular season game for the Rams was a maudlin, yet exhilarating performance. WSSU traveled to Kentucky to defeat Kentucky State 14-6.

The exuberant Rams broke out on top 14-0, beguiling themselves into believing they had an easy victory. However, their scoreless second half and Kentucky's third quarter touchdown rationalized those assumptions.

WSSU's overall record improved to 8-2-1, a testament to the team's hard work and persistence. Although the Rams failed to go undefeated, they made the infidels strong believers and gained respect wherever they roamed.

CHARLES HOOKER — Charles placed third in the NAIA and was voted by his teammates as the most improved wrestler for the 1978-79 season.

1980 CIAA WRESTLING COACH OF THE YEAR

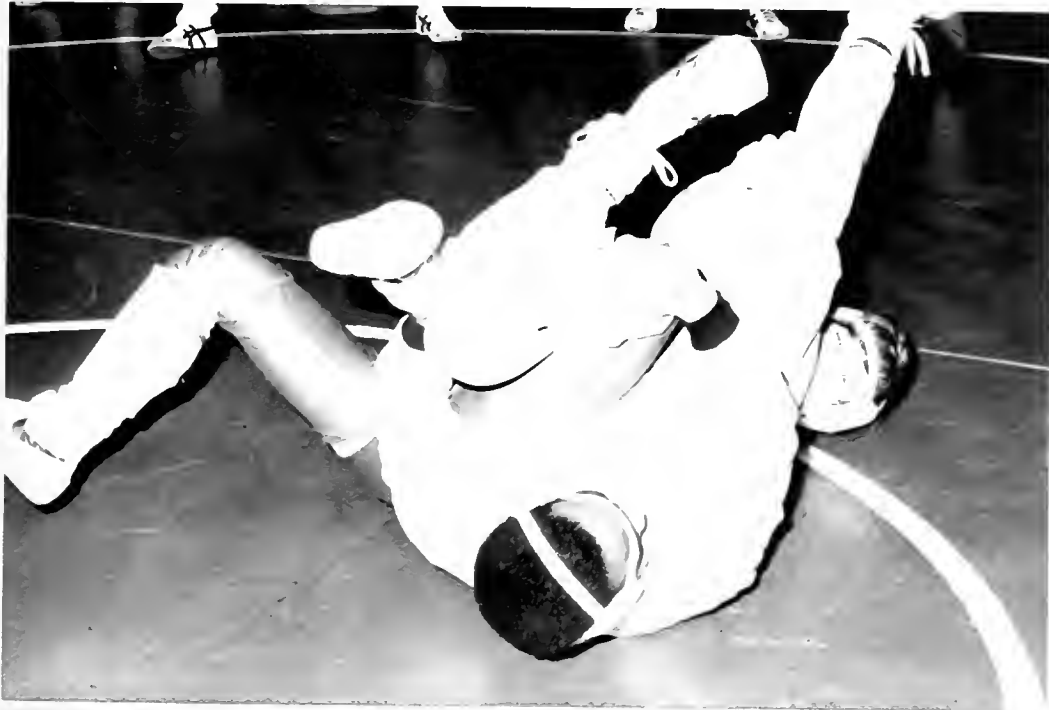

A native of Oak Ridge, North Carolina, Coach Edwards is in his third year at WSSU. He is a graduate of Pembroke State University with a degree in physical education and has completed his master's degree at North Carolina A & T State University.

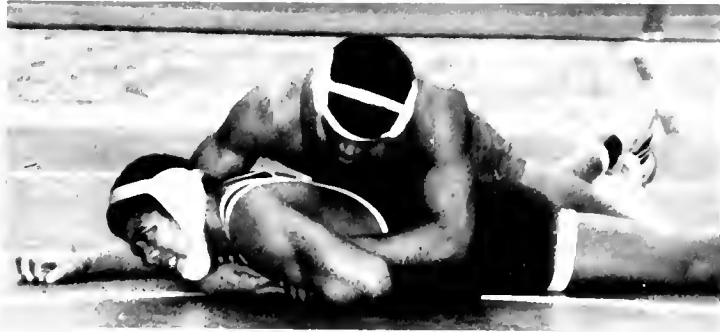

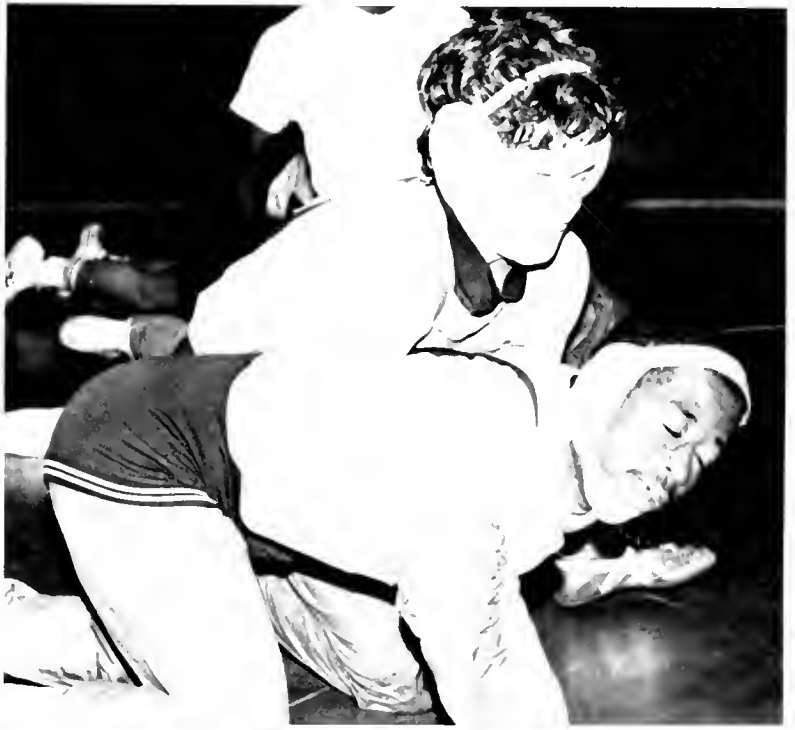

Coach Edwards distinguished himself as an undergraduate wrestler by qualifying for the NAIA Nationals from 1972-75. He finished seventh in his senior year.

His coaching career includes serving as assistant wrestling coach at A&T in 1975-76 and starting a wrestling program at Barber-Scotia College the following year. In his first two seasons as the WSSU wrestling coach, Edwards compiled a 15-11 record, with a 10-3 record last season.

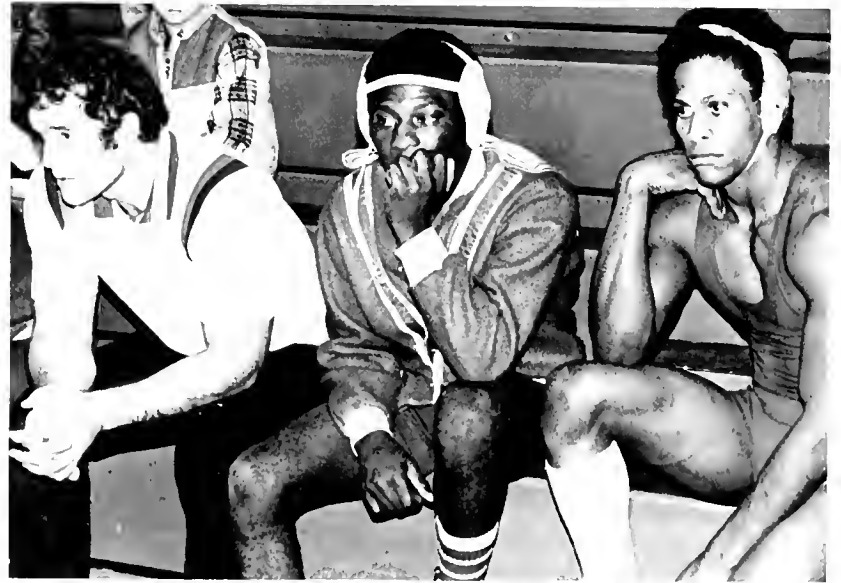

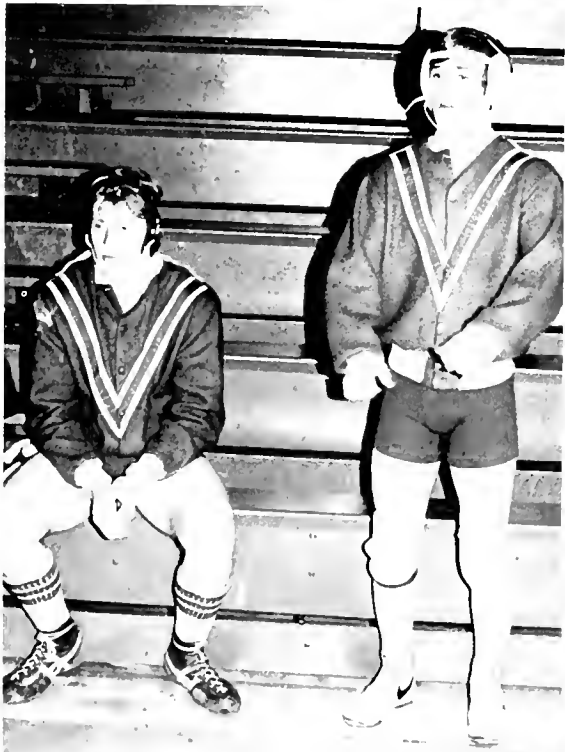

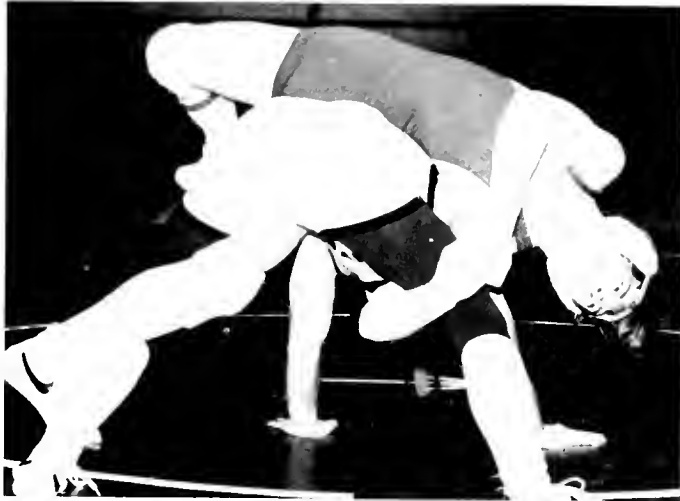

Three years ago, Ram coach Mike Edwards said he would have a championship wrestling squad within three years. It is now three years later and Coach Edwards has indeed, produced a championship. Capturing three first place finishes and dominating in second and third place finishes enabled the Rams to pile up 81½ points and a CIAA championship. First place finishers were Horace Williams, Ricky Hargrove, and Curtis Gore.

Ram coach Mike Edwards was named Coach of the Year. Horace Williams was selected as the meets outstanding wrestler.

Three Broadway Shows at WSSU

Ray Charles and three of Broadway's top shows have been lined up for this year's Lyceum Series at Winston-Salem State University, announced Harry E. Pickard, series director.

Charles, the ageless blind pianist, the Raylettes and his 16-piece orchestra will perform on Oct. 24 during Homecoming activities. The time is 8 p.m.

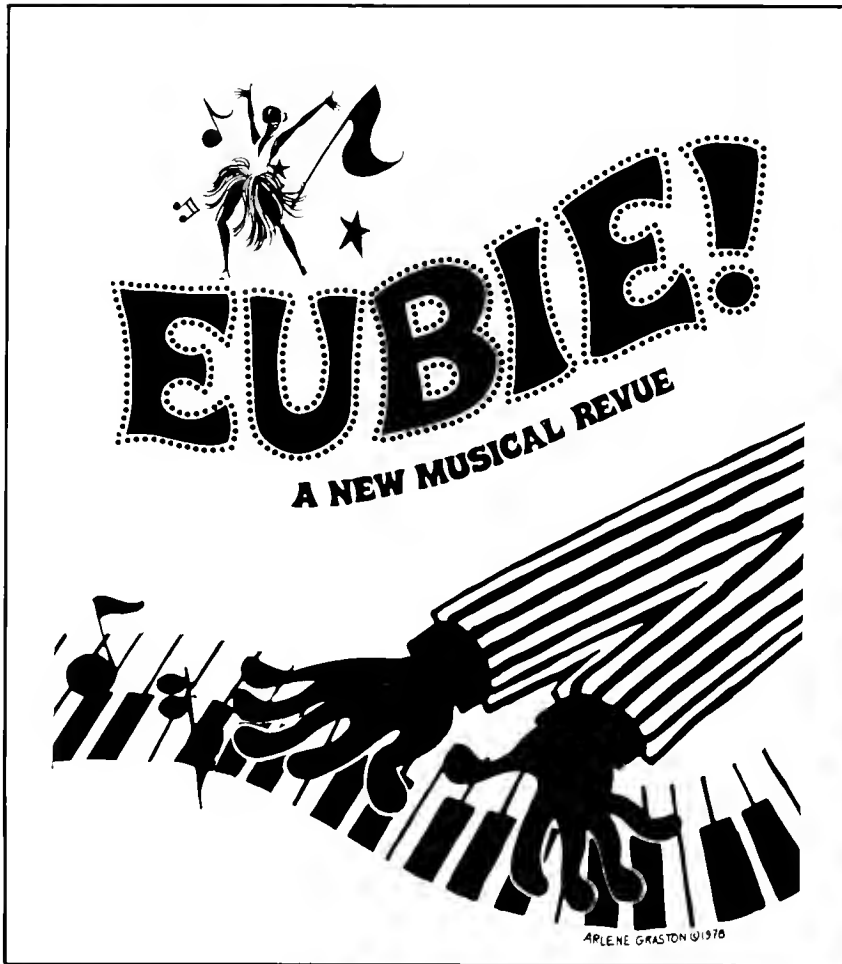

Eubie, the Broadway musical based on the music of 91-year-old pianist Eubie Blake, has been scheduled for Friday, Nov. 30. There will be a matinee performance at 3:30 p.m. and an evening show at 8 p.m.

During the second semester of the school year, Ain't Misbehaving, the 1978 Tony Award winner for best musical, will be at WSSU for two shows, one at 4 p.m. and the other at 8:30 p.m. on Feb. 26, 1980.

Deathtrap, an unusual mix of comedy and murder mystery from the Great White Way, is scheduled for one show only on Sunday, March 16.

The lyceum also includes the University Fine Arts Festival from April 10-30, institutional exchanges with the N.C. School of the Arts, Saint Augustine's College, Bennett College and N.C. Central University and the Joseph N. Patterson Assembly Series.

In Memory of

The Calling Of Thou Father

Death is a darkness that overshadows our day,
A sorrowful moment that takes one away.
As we enhance our life, our thoughts must mend,
for God, our Creator, has brought upon the end.
Death is eternal, a monumental thing,
Death is spiritual, for hence the angels sing.
There comes a time when one must depart,

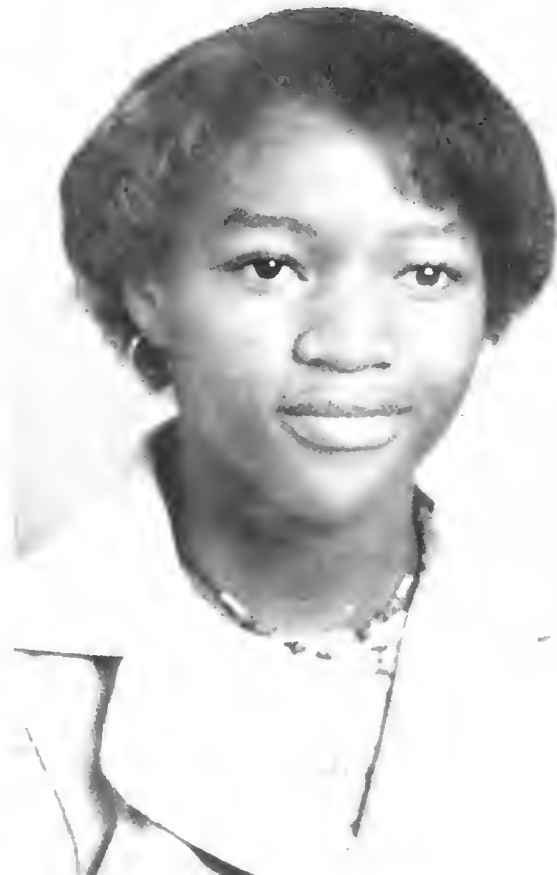

But is it the end of life, or is it the start?
Let us reminisce of those we've lost so dear . . .
For their presence and warmth shall forever be near.

Office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Telephone 919 / 761-2160

Dear University Family and Community,

During 1979-80, the University was visited by several reaccreditation committees. These were the North Carolina Teacher Education, the National League for Nursing, and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Committees.

Winston-Salem State University is a member in good standing of the above respective national and state accrediting agencies.

As a member, WSSU must participate in Self-Study programs at pre-determined intervals. The programs are designed to help the University explore ways and means by which we may improve ourselves. Because 1979-80 is the period for Self-Study and reaccreditation, the institution has engaged in an intensive review and assessment of all Programs. Committees of qualified educators assisted us in this endeavor.

As a result of recommendations shared, we were able to identify our strengths and weaknesses, problems, and solutions. Thanks is hereby extended to the University community for its participation in these essential and important Self-Study activities.

Sincerely,

Arnold Lockett
Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
